

LONG-TERM INDUSTRY FORECASTS TO 2026, MAUI MSA

Highlights

Maui's employment is projected to expand by 6,130 jobs to 90,310 from 2016 to 2026. The projected growth rate of 7.3 percent for Maui will surpass forecasted growth for Oahu, but will be lower than both Hawaii and Kauai counties. Job increases are anticipated for all but three industries.

- ▶ Almost half of the jobs generated during the 10-year period will be attributed to three industries. Healthcare and social assistance will add 1,460 positions, which accounts for nearly one-fourth of the total county gain, and is significantly higher than all other industry advances. The next largest increase of 780 jobs will originate from food services and drinking places, followed by a job expansion of 690 in administrative and support and waste management and remediation services.
- ▶ In addition to the largest job gain, healthcare and social assistance will expand by the fastest rate of 20.3 percent. Management of companies and enterprises will shoot up by 17.6 percent, but the net gain will total only 40 jobs because of this industry's small size. Construction job growth of 13.9 percent will register the third highest industry advance.
